

Battle Born PTA

Serving the

State of Nevada

1. Battle Born PTA is accepting applications for its 2020 Scholarship Program. Scholarships have a minimum award value of five hundred ($500) and may be worth more depending on the number of applicants.
2. Applications are open to full time college students or incoming freshmen that graduated or will graduate spring 2020 from a Nevada High School and are permanent residents of Nevada.
3. Applicants must be a member of their local high school PTA or PTSA or they can join Battle Born PTA if there is not a PTA or PTSA at their school. Membership information for Battle Born PTA is included below. Membership will be verified with the respective PTA unit.
4. Eligible applicants must attend a college or university or vo-tech center. There is no restriction on field of study.
5. Any applicant who has received more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00) in other combined scholarships or grants in an academic year is not eligible to apply.
6. All information requested must be provided. Applications must be received via email by April 10, 2020. Winners will be announced at NV PTA Convention April 25, 2020. If unable to attend all winners will be notified by May 1, 2020.
7. If necessary, Battle Born reserves the right to require references and or personal interviews to determine winners.
8. Submit all forms to:
Battle Born PTA
battlebornpta@gmail.com

Submittal Instructions:

- Complete form online and save to your computer.
- Applications will only be accepted as a single file, multi page submission with the file named as follows. JonesK_Reno.pdf (last name, first initial, underscore, city you reside in)
- Please either scan the documents together or combine on computer (whichever you are more comfortable with)
